Whitehall, July 3, 1798.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland by His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

My Lord, Kilkenny, June 26, 1798.

FEARING the Consequences that must result from allowing the Rebels who fled from Wexford to remain any Length of Time in this County, I preferred attacking them with a small Number of Men to waiting till a Reinforcement arrived. My Force amounted to 1100 Men. The Rebels consisted of about 5000. I attacked them this Morning at six o'Clock in their Position at Kilconnel Hill, near Gore's Bridge, and soon defeated them. Their Chief, called Murphy, a Priest, and upwards of 1000 Men, were killed. Ten Pieces of Cannon and Two Swivels, the Colours, and Quantities of Ammunition, Arms, Cattle, &c. were taken; and I have the Pleasure to add that some Soldiers, who were made Prisoners the Day before, and who were doomed to suffer Death, were fortunately released by our Troops. Our Loss consisted of seven Men killed and wounded. The Remainder of the Rebels were pursued into the County of Wexford, where they dispersed in different Directions.

I feel particularly obliged to Major Matthews, of the Downshire Militia, who, at a short Notice and with great Alacrity, marched with 400 Men of his Regiment, and Captain Poole's and Captain Gore's Yeomanry Corps from Maryboro', to co-operate with me, Lord Loftus, and Colonel Ram of the Wexford Militia, Lieutenant-Colonel Howard, and Lieutenant-Colonel Radcliffe, of the Wicklow. Major Donaldson, of the Ninth Dragoons, who commanded the Cavalry, as well as all the Officers and Privates, are entitled to my Thanks for their spirited Exertions. Nor can I withhold the Praises so justly due to all the Yeomanry Corps employed on this Occasion.

I also beg Leave to mention my Aid-de-Camp, Captain Ogle, and Lieutenant Higgins, of the Ninth Dragoons, who has acted as my Brigade Major.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

Message from the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to both Houses of Parliament, 27th June, 1798.

CORNWALLIS.

I AM commanded by His Majesty to acquaint the House of Lords *, That several of His Majesty's Regiments of English Militia have voluntarily offered their Services to be employed in Aid of his Regular and Militia Forces in this Kingdom during the present unhappy Rebellion, for the Purpose of assisting in the Suppression thereof; and that His Majesty having been graciously pleased to recommend it to His Parliament of Great Britain to enable him to accept this spirited Offer, an Act for that Purpose has passed accordingly.

In consequence thereof I am further commanded by His Majesty to recommend it to you to take into immediate Consideration, the Measures which may be necessary in order that this Kingdom may avail itself in the fullest Manner of this striking and seasonable Proof of ardent Zeal and Attachment towards His Majesty's Person and Government, and of affectionate Concern for the Interests and Safety of His Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects in Ireland.

* A similar Message was sent to the House of Commons.

Address of the House of Lords in Ireland to His Majesty.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Thanks for the gracious Message which has this Day been communicated to this House in your Majesty's Name.

We have seen with the most lively Sensibility the voluntary and generous Offer of various Regiments of English Militia to co-operate with your Majesty's Forces in this Kingdom for the Suppression of the present unhappy Rebellion.

Such a decisive Proof that the People of Great Britain consider the Constitution and Welfare of this Kingdom as inseparably connected with their own, and that both Nations must stand and fall together, excites in us every Sentiment of affectionate Attachment, and impresses us with Confidence as to the Event of any Contest in which we may be engaged.

The Alacrity with which this Offer has been encouraged by your Majesty and adopted by your Parliament of Great Britain, is an additional Proof of their exalted Magnanimity, and of your Majesty's parental Anxiety for the Interests of your loyal Subjects in Ireland.

We cannot omit this Occasion of expressing to your Majesty our unalterable Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, Family, and Government, and to those Principles of genuine Liberty which placed your Majesty's Family upon the Throne of these Realms for the Protection of our Establishments in Church and State, and for preserving the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland inseparably united under your Majesty's illustrious House and under one common Sovereign. Every Attempt to make us swerve from these Principles has failed. All the Machinations of Democratic Innovation, which, under the Pretence of Reform and Improvement, are calculated to introduce Anarchy and Confusion, we have resisted; and knowing the Value of that Inheritance which was purchased by the Blood of our Ancestors, we are firmly resolved to defend and maintain it with our Fortunes and with our Lives, secure of the Approbation of your Majesty and of the cordial Co-operation of our Fellow-Subjects of Great Britain.

JOHN GAYER, D. Cler. Parl.

Address of the House of Commons in Ireland to His Majesty.

Mercurii 27 Die Junii, 1798.

Resolved Nemine Contradicente,

THAT an humble Address be presented to His Majesty, to beg Leave to offer His Majesty our cordial Acknowledgments for his gracious Message which has this Day been communicated to this House in His Majesty's Name: That the voluntary Offer of various Regiments of English Militia to join their Efforts with His Majesty's Forces in this Kingdom, for the Suppression of the present unhappy Rebellion, unites us in Sentiments of the most affectionate Attachment to the British Nation: That it is a signal Proof that the People of Great Britain consider the Constitution and Welfare of this Kingdom as inseparably connected with their own, and that both Nations must stand or fall together: That while this Determination is thus mutually and spiritedly supported under Providence, we can never be doubtful of the ultimate Event of any Contest in which we may be engaged.

That to his Majesty's paternal Solitude for our Welfare we are peculiarly indebted for the Encouragement which this generous Offer has received, and to the enlarged Views of the Parliament of Great Britain for the Promptitude with which it has been tendered effectual.

That we embrace this Opportunity of declaring to His Majesty our unalterable Attachment to His Majesty's sacred Person, Family, and Government, and to those Principles of genuine and constitutional Liberty which placed His Majesty's Family upon the Throne of these Realms for the Protection of our Establishments in Church and State, and for preserving the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland inseparably connected under His Majesty's illustrious

House and under one common Sovereign. That having ever these Objects before us, we have steadily and uniformly resisted the dangerous Spirit of Democratic Innovation which has convulsed and desolated a great Part of Europe, under the Pretence of Improvement and Reform. And that, secure of His Majesty's Approbation and of the cordial Co-operation of our Fellow-Subjects of Great Britain, we are firmly and unalterably determined to defend and maintain the invaluable Inheritance we have derived from our Ancestors with our Fortunes and our Lives.

G. F. HILL, Cler. Dom. Com.

Address of the House of Lords in Ireland to the Lord Lieutenant.

Die Mercurii, 27^o Junii 1798.

Resolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, Nemine Dissentiente,

THAT an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, on his Arrival in this Kingdom as Chief Governor; to assure His Excellency that we reflect with Satisfaction upon the Wisdom and Integrity which have marked his Conduct in one of the greatest Commands which can be entrusted to a Subject, and on the brilliant Successes which have given Lustre to his Military Talents: And we feel assured that under His Excellency's Guidance, the Loyalty and Vigour of the Kingdom will increase its Energies; that the Right of His Majesty's Crown, and the Constitution of the Realm, will be maintained against every Attack; and that no Measure will be omitted which Foresight can suggest, or Valour can execute, for crushing Rebellion within, and defending us from Foreign Invasion.

Ordered, That the Lord Chancellor do attend His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the said Resolution.

JOHN GAYER, D. Cler. Parl.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

THE Address of the House of Lords upon my Arrival in this Kingdom is in the highest Degree flattering to my Feelings. I cannot be more forcibly stimulated to deserve, if possible, their future good Opinion, than by so kind an Approbation of my past Conduct. I feel the full Influence of such an Incentive, and the House of Lords may rely upon my utmost Exertions to establish the Tranquillity, to maintain the Constitution, and to promote the Prosperity of Ireland.

Address of the House of Commons in Ireland to the Lord Lieutenant.

Mercurii 27^o Die Junii 1798.

Resolved Nemine Contradicente,

THAT an humble Address be presented to His Excellency the Marquis Cornwallis, to offer His Excellency the Congratulations of the House of Commons upon his Appointment to the Government of this Kingdom; to assure his Excellency that, from the superior Military Talents he has so conspicuously displayed, and from the consummate Integrity and Ability which he has manifested in the high Situations he has already filled, the House of Commons entertain the fullest Confidence that the Kingdom, under His Excellency's Auspices, will be successfully defended against every Domestic and Foreign Enemy, and that our invaluable Constitution will be firmly maintained, and the Government wisely conducted.

G. F. HILL, Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

I Request the House of Commons will accept my sincere Thanks for their Address of Congratulation on my Arrival in this Kingdom. If they have kindly over-valued my Success, they have not, I trust, over-rated my Zeal in the Service of my Sovereign.

The Restoration of Public Peace and Subordination upon Principles which may secure their Permanence, the promoting of such Measures as can best advance the Prosperity and preserve the Constitution of Ireland, will be the constant Objects of my Administration.

My Lord, Dublin Castle, June 25, 1798.

I HAVE the Honour to acquaint your Grace that this Day Advices were received from Lieut. Gardner of the Antrim Militia, dated from Baltinaglas the 26th Instant; which state, that early in the Morning of the 25th, a very large Body of Rebels attacked his Post at Hacketstown. They were in Number many Thousands. Lieutenant Gardner's Force consisted of 50 Upper Talbotstown, and 24 Shebagh Cavalry, 50 of the Antrim Regiment, 46 Hacketstown, and 30 Coolattin-Yeoman Infantry. He at first took an advantageous Situation in Front of the Town; but, after a few Shots without Effect, the Rebels filed off in every Direction to surround him. He then retreated into the Town to defend the Barracks. A Contest took place in the Midst of Flames for near nine Hours, for the Rebels set Fire to the Town. They were at last repulsed with considerable Loss; many Dead were found in the Streets and Ditches, and 30 Car Loads of Killed and Wounded were carried off in their Retreat.

Lieutenant Gardner speaks in the highest Terms of the Gallantry of his whole Detachment. He particularly praises Lieutenant Rowan of the Antrim, Captain Hume of the Upper Talbotstown Cavalry, Captain and Lieutenant Charnley of the Coolattin, Lieutenants Saul and Thomas of the Hacketstown Cavalry, and Lieutenants Braddell and Taylor of the Shebagh Cavalry; and he strongly mentions the good Conduct of Sergeant Nixon of the Antrim Regiment.

He severely laments the Loss of a good Officer, Captain Hardy of the Hacketstown Yeoman Infantry, who fell early in the Action. His other Loss consists of 10 Privates killed, and of 1 Sergeant and 19 Privates wounded.

I inclose to your Grace a further Account of the Action near Gorebridge, and a Return of Killed and Wounded, which has been received from Major-General Sir Charles Asgill.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

CORNWALLIS.

His Grace the Duke of Portland,
&c. &c. &c.

My Lord, Kilkenny, 27th June, 1798.

I Have the Honor to send you inclosed a Return of the Killed and Wounded in the Action with the Rebels at Kilconnel Hill on the 26th of June, and a Return of the Ordnance, Ammunition, &c. &c. taken on that Day. I have the Pleasure to assure you that every Thing they possessed has fallen into our Hands, and, from subsequent Accounts, the Loss they sustained was much greater than I had the Honor of stating to you in my former Dispatch. I have no Doubt but this Victory will restore the Counties of Kilkenny and Carlow to Peace and Tranquillity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

C. ASGILL, Maj. Gen.

Right Honourable Viscount Castlereagh.

Return of Ordnance, Colours, and Ammunition taken.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Wood of His Majesty's Sloop Hound, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 15th June, 1798.

I Have to acquaint you for the Information of their Lordships, that at One A. M. on the 14th Instant, Skaw bearing E. S. E. 10 Leagues, I captured the Dutch Lugger Sea Hound, pierced for Fourteen Guns, but having only Seven mounted, and Four Swivels, manned with Thirty Men; she has been Six Weeks from Holland.

Admiralty-Office, July 3, 1798.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knight, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esquire, dated Queen, Cape Nicola Mole, May 29, 1798.

SIR,

Lieutenant Ross, Commander of His Majesty's Schooner Recovery, having captured the Privateers mentioned in a Letter to Captain Brooking, and which has been transmitted to me, I send you enclosed a Copy of the said Letter, which I desire you will be pleased to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, not doubting but they will highly approve of the Conduct of that Officer.

You will also receive on the other Side a List of Armed Vessels taken or destroyed by the Cruizers under my Command, since my last.

I am, &c.

H. PARKER.

SIR, Montego Bay, May 1, 1798.

I Beg Leave to inform you that on the 17th Ultimo, at Ten A.M. the French Privateer Schooner La Revanche struck to His Majesty's Schooner Recovery, under my Command, after engaging from 45 to 50 Minutes. La Revanche is pierced for 12 Guns, and had 10 Guns and 54 Men on board when she engaged. She belonged to Cape Francois, captured 10 Vessels last Cruise, and 19 the preceding one. She was commanded by Citizen Antoine Martin, who shortened Sail, and hove to, to engage me. I had the Weather Gage of him, and went within Pistol Shot before we commenced firing. The Enemy had three Men killed and nine wounded, four of them not expected to recover; the Hull and Rigging very much damaged with our Shot. In the latter Part of the Action, he endeavoured to effect his Escape by the Use of his Sweeps, for he had not a Sail to set except his Standing Jib.

I am happy to add, that His Majesty's Schooner has not received any Damage, excepting one Gun dismounted and some small Shot in her Masts, &c. nor are any of her small Crew hurt. They are most of them young and inexperienced Boys and Lads; but it is with real Satisfaction I assure you, that all of them displayed the greatest Chearfulness and Firmness during the Action, and that their Conduct would do much Honour to the most experienced Seamen.

On the 29th Ultimo at Noon, a little to Leeward of St. Ann's Bay, I fell in with the French Privateer Schooner L'Incredule, two long Six-Pounders, four Swivels, and 33 Men: After two Hours Chase to Leeward, I captured her, and was obliged to come in here to land the Prisoners. She is coppered, and sails very fast; had only captured a Danish Vessel and a Shallop with 20 Hogheads of Sugar, which was afterwards retaken by a Merchant-Ship.

I am, with much Respect, &c.

WILLIAM ROSS.

Admiralty-Office, July 3, 1798.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingmill, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean, dated June 27, 1798.

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Shannon has captured and sent in here a fine French Privateer out of Nantes, mounting 18 Guns and 120 Men; further Particulars of which will be seen in the accompanying Letter to me from Captain Fraser.

SIR, Shannon at Sea, June 26, 1798.
I Have the Honour to acquaint you, that on the 23d Instant, at Five P. M. being in Latitude 50 Degrees North, and Longitude 21 Degrees West, I fell in with, and after a Chase of 12 Hours captured La Julie Privateer, of Nantes, commanded by Citizen Gautreau, mounting 18 Twelve and Six Pounders, and manned with 120 Men. She had been from Couronne ten Days; and it gives me much Satisfaction to have taken this Privateer, being quite new, Copper bottomed; and, though not of large Dimensions, is a remarkable fine Vessel, and sails extremely well. Her Length is 78 Feet Keel, 27 Feet Breadth of Beam; 11 Feet Depth of Hold, and is about 270 Tons Burthen.

I have the Honour to be, &c.
Vice-Admiral Kingmill. ALEX. FRASER.
